Tell a story as a group. One starts the story with one sentence, like "we should build a design factory in our school this year."

"Yes, and..."

The next person continues the story by starting with "Yes, and...,"

An intermediate strategy between yes, but and yes and could be "Yes, what I like about your idea is ... so we could ..."

Apply Design Process

- Design Sprint (gv.com)
- a five-day process for answering critical business questions through design, prototyping, and testing ideas with customers.
- Lightning Decision Jam (AJ&Smart)
- a framework to cut unnecessary discussions while deciding on any subject. It's kind of a shorter version of a Design Sprint, so it is a perfect practice to do before your first Design Sprint. (one hour)

HMW

How Might We turn this problem into an opportunity?

- neither too narrow -make it overly restrictive
- nor too broad -leave you wandering forever in infinite possibilities

HOW to Generate HMW Questions

Challenge: Redesign the ground experience at the local international airport

Point of View (POV) or problem statement: Harried mother of three, rushing through the airport only to wait hours at the gate, needs to entertain her playful children because “annoying little brats” only irritate already frustrated fellow passengers.

- Amp up the good: HMW use the kids’ energy to entertain fellow passenger?
- Remove the bad: HMW separate the kids from fellow passengers?
- Explore the opposite: HMW make the wait the most exciting part of the trip?
- Question an assumption: HMW entirely remove the wait time at the airport?
- Go after adjectives: HMW we make the rush refreshing instead of harrying?
- ID unexpected resources: HMW leverage free time of fellow passengers to share the load?
- Create an analogy from need or context: HMW make the airport like a spa? Like a playground?
- Play POV against the challenge: HMW make the airport a place that kids want to go?
- Change a status quo: HMW make playful, loud kids less annoying?
- Break POV into pieces: HMW entertain kids? HMW slow a mom down? HMW mollify delayed passengers?

A group of people are sitting in a circle around a campfire at dusk. The fire is bright and glowing, illuminating the people's faces. In the background, there is a calm lake reflecting the twilight sky, which is a mix of deep blue and orange. A tent is visible on the left side of the frame. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and social.

Let's sit in a circle, admire the fire and share what happened these two weeks!
